he located on his present place, where he has ever since resided. Mr. Warner [illegible] in time to see much new country, and to clear his farm principally of all [illegible]mber. In 1847, he married Ursula J. Hitchcock, and they have had one child—Maggie W., the wife of G. T. Brothwell. Mr. Warner owns 500 acres of land, which he and Mr. Brothwell farm, and also carry on stock-raising. Mr. Warner is a Republican. His wife was born in Orleans County, N. Y., September 15, 1822, and is a member of the M. E. Church. G. T. Brothwell was born January 25, 1841, in Bridgeport, Conn. Emery Brothwell and Polina Treadwell, his parents, are both dead. G. T. Brothwell came to Noble County in May, 1858, and lived with his uncle, John F., until the breaking-out of the war. August 12, 1862, he enlisted in Company B, Twelfth Indiana Volunteer Infantry, Fifteenth Army Corps, and was discharged June 20, 1865. Richmond, Ky., was the first battle he engaged in, and was there taken prisoner. He was paroled, came home on a furlough, after which he was exchanged, and then rejoined his regiment. He was an active participant in the battles of Chattanooga, Mission Ridge, Kenesaw and Lookout Mountain, Vicksburg, all through the Atlanta Campaign, with Sherman on his memorable march to the sea, and with Sherman went to Washington. After the war, Mr. Brothwell returned to his native town, and took a thorough course in Bryant & Stratton's Business College. Afterward, he came to South Bend, Ind., where for two years he was engaged in the manufacture of woolen goods. January 21, 1849, he married, and since that event has been chiefly engaged in farming in Orange Township. He and wife are members of the M. E. Church, and Mr. Brothwell is a Republican in politics.

C. C. WATKINS. The father of the subject, Orlin Watkins, was born in Ontario County, N. Y., December 24, 1798. He was a son of Nathan and Sarah (Clark) Watkins, and grandson of Capt. William Watkins (Captain in the Revolution). His great-grandfather Watkins was a native of Wales, and during the religious disturbances there, in 1688, he and a brother fled to America. Orlin Watkins was raised a farmer. He was married March 13, 1822, to Electa S. Ketchum. After his marriage, he engaged in the manufacture of woolen goods in Naples, N. Y. The spring of 1836 he sold out, came to Noble County, and entered 400 acres on Sections 21 and 27 in Orange Township; returned to New York. The fall of 1836, he brought his family, but did not locate until the next year. The winter of 1836–37, he was in Michigan, and the fall of 1837 came to Noble County, leaving his family in Wayne Township, until he could erect a cabin. He resided in Orange Township until his death, June 13, 1860. His wife died on the 17th of August, 1854. They were the parents of five children, four living. Mr. Watkins was a Whig, but, beginning with John C. Fremont's candidacy, became a permanent Republican. He was a worker in the Congregational faith. Calvin C. Watkins was born October 26, 1826. He came with his parents to Indiana. He was married September 24, 1858, to Nancy J. Piatt, a native of Knox County, Ohio. Their union has been blessed with six children—Warren C., Fanny F., Timothy C., Lizzie A., Nathan A. and Willie H. Lizzie is dead. Mr. Watkins has made Orange Township his home since coming to Noble County. He owns 200 acres of good land, is a Republican, and he and wife are members of the Protestant Methodist Church. Mr. Watkins is a member of the Masons, the Knights of Honor and the Odd Fellows.

of age. He spent some time at clearing land, and bought 108 acres of wooded land in Orange Township, then went back to Ohio. He made the journey on foot, a distance of 300 miles, with the exception of sixteen miles that he traveled by rail, from Fort Finley to Cary, on the first cars he had ever seen. He returned in 1850, and September 20, 1851, was married to Susanna Towns, a native of Ohio, and daughter of John and Mary Towns, who located on a farm in 1850, in Steuben County, Ind., where they died. Mr. Weaver's farm now numbers 267 acres of land of the best soil to be found in the county, and in place of the old log cabin stands a commodious frame residence, and the farm is well superintended by the owner, who is a thorough farmer. Mr. and Mrs. Weaver are members of the German Baptist Church, and have had five children —John (deceased), William, who is one of the most active and prosperous farmers of Elkhart Township; Sylvanus and Wesley, living at home, and Cornelius (deceased.)

JACOB WEAVER. January 30, 1827, there was born to Christian and Christina (Hetrick) Weaver, the subject of this sketch, in Columbiana County, Ohio. The mother died after bearing Mr. Weaver a family of twelve children, and this gentlemen married Mrs. Sally Hoffman for his second wife, who bore him two children. Mr. Weaver is now dead, but his last wife is yet living. Father of subject was a farmer. He was an honest, straightforward man, a Deacon in the German Baptist Church, and a well-respected citizen. Jacob Weaver was reared on his father's farm, assisting his parents in the duties of farm life that devolved on them. His educational advantages were very limited, and he received but a meager schooling. He emigrated to Indiana the fall of 1849, and for a few months resided in Jefferson Township. Early the next year, he removed to Orange Township, which he has since made his home. The country at that time was quite wild, and small clearings were all that attested that people had been there. Mr. Weaver worked around at different jobs until his marriage to Lydia Towns the fall of 1852, since when he has been living on his present place. He commenced with small means at his command, but by hard labor and economy has made a competence. He owns 102 acres of well-improved land, and is in good financial circumstances. He is a Democrat, and he and wife are members of the German Baptist Church. The children born to them are as follows: Rachel, David, Lee, Lou, Jacob and Lona, living, and Ellen, Eli, John and Rosetta, dead.

CHARLES A. WILSON, M. D., proprietor of the Mineral Springs Therapy, Rome City, was born April 20, 1842, in Worcester County, Mass. He is one of five children, of whom Wheaton and Jerusha (Chase) Wilson were the parents. Up to the age of nineteen, he lived at home, and received a practical education. At the age of twelve, he began working at carriage painting, but discontinued it for the study of medicine when sixteen. He left his studies and enlisted, September, 1861, in Company I, Twenty-fifth Massachusetts Volunteer Infantry. He served in the infantry until after the battle of Newbern as Assistant Hospital Steward, and was then transferred to the United States steamer Delaware, and, after six months, to the ship Constitution. This vessel left port with sealed instructions, not to be opened until they had sailed easterly 100 miles. On opening these instructions, it was found that they were out for a two years' cruise in search of the Alabama and Florida, to protect the rights of American citizens in foreign ports. For a year and six months they cruised around with ordinary success. Dr. Wilson, on this cruise, obtained a good knowledge of surgery, besides a memorable experience in

SITUATION—WATER-COURSES.

THE township of Knox, No. 17 in range 5, is the northwest corner township in the present county of Columbiana. It comprises 36 square miles of land, more or less hilly, and is well drained by the Mahoning River and its tributaries. It has no low or marsh lands incapable of successful cultivation. The waters of the Mahoning, which rises in West and Butler, are considerably augmented in their passage through the township. The township is bounded north by Mahoning County, east by Butler township, south by West township, and west by Stark County.

EARLY SETTLEMENTS.

Early settlements in Knox township, as in many others, were induced by the low price fixed by the Federal Government in the sale of the public lands. The natural situation, the fertility of the soil, and the healthful climate were additional causes of early immigration and rapid settlement. These considerations resulted in the permanent settlement of the township, notwithstanding a very large portion of its territory was purchased by speculators, who, within the ensuing twenty years, disposed of it to settlers at advanced prices.

The first permanent settler of the township was John Thomas, of Adams Co., Pa., who came with a family of grown children. He entered sections 27, 28, and 29 in the year 1804. The children were John, Michael, Samuel and Peter (twins), Henry, Mary, who afterwards married John Niswander. Susan, Sarah, and Thomas were born in Knox.

The children of John, the oldest son, were Elizabeth, John, Mary, and Catharine. The children of Henry were Mary, Samuel, David, Jacob, Daniel, Barbara, George, Esther, Margaret, and Henry, Jr. Michael, the second son, brought a family of two children from Pennsylvania,—Margaret and Henry. Thomas, the youngest son, lives on the homestead farm, on section 28.

John Thomas, the pioneer, died in the year 1818, at the age of seventy-three years, and was interred in the burying-ground in Butler township, east of the present village of North Georgetown.

Moses, John, Thomas, and Richard Gilson, brothers, made permanent settlement in the township soon after the Thomas family, and probably in the next year. Thomas Gilson, now living on section 31, is a grandson of Thomas the pioneer.

Jacob Shaffer, a native of Lancaster Co., Pa., settled in Knox in 1804. His children by his first wife were Solomon and Margaret, who married Joseph Bloom English. During Sabbath morning service on the banks of the Sandy, June 2, 1822, Mrs. Shaffer and her infant child were killed by a falling tree. The second wife of Jacob was Nancy Linard, by whom he had children,—Lydia, who married David Johnson; Joseph, who married Elizabeth Thomas, and lives in Knox township; Susanna, who married Michael Haveley; Hannah, who married John Myers; Mary, who married Henry Hustand; Amanda, who became Mrs. Thomas Isaman; Abigail, who became the wife of Dayton Holloway; Joshua, David, and Jacob.

Daniel Whiteleather, now living at North Georgetown, is one of a family of eight children, sons and daughters of Andrew Whiteleather. This family, all grown, settled in the township in 1807. The children were John, Christophel, George, David, Polly, Mary, Elizabeth, and Catharine. Of this family, David, who alone survives, lives on the homestead farm, on section 25, and has had thirteen children,—Andrew, John, Harriet, Mary, Joseph, Moses, Margaret, Jane, wife of Levi McLaughlin, David, William, Jacob, Rebecca, Elizabeth, and Rosanna.

Parmenas Lamborn, of Chester Co., Pa., settled on section 13 in the year 1814, having a family consisting of a wife and four children,—Isaac; Mariam, who married John Buck; Dinah, who married James Hartley; and William. These were born subsequently: Elizabeth, who married Joseph Ball, and died in 1874; Annie, who died in 1851; Lydia; and Mary, who died in 1837.

The children of John and Mariam (Lamborn) Buck were Nathan, who died in 1848 or '49; Jonathan, who died aged three years; Rebecca, who died in infancy; Josiah, who died in 1855; John W.; and Mary Anna, who married James Brandon, and lives in Knox township.

John Weaver, of Bedford Co., Pa., settled on section 35 in 1819. His children, all of whom are natives of Knox, are David, Isaac, John, William, Nancy, and Catharine. Of these, Isaac only now lives in the township.

John Weaver, Sr., the father of John, the settler mentioned above, settled on section 36 in 1822. With him came five children,—Nancy, who married Isaac Yengling; Abraham, who married Susan Conser; Samuel, Isaac, and Barbara. Isaac married Catharine Shively, and had nine children,—Daniel, John, Susan, who married Henry Hoffman, and was killed by lightning in 1868; Elizabeth, who married Eli Stoffer; Franklin, Isaac, Delilah, who married Barney Neal; David, and Levi.

In 1821, Cornelius Sheehan, of Lancaster Co., Pa., settled on section 32. In his family were ten children,—five boys and five girls,—viz.: Isabella, John, William, Jeremiah, Rebecca, Elizabeth, and Samuel; and step-children,—Mary A., Nancy, and James. Of these, Jeremiah, Elizabeth, and Samuel live in Knox township. John, the second son, died in 1852. The children of Jeremiah are Ann, who married Nerr Burns; and Calvin, Thomas, Jesse, Franklin, ciety of Friends, east of New Garden, about 1806. In 1840 the log church was replaced by a commodious structure. Soon the Friends began to move away, the church was abandoned and, in 1859, the structure was demolished. About the date of the building of the church at New Garden, the Friends living near Hanover erected a log meeting house. At that time this was the only church in the neighborhood. In 1872 they replaced the log house with a brick structure. The services of the New Garden Meeting of Friends were transferred to Winona in 1839, they having been held in Hanover township prior to that time.

The First Presbyterian Church of Hanoverton was organized about 1830 by Rev. James Robertson, a minister somewhat noted in Columbiana County for his success in organizing churches. A frame church had been built in anticipation of the organization. Rev. Mr. Robertson was the first pastor, and served until 1846, when he organized a Free Presbyterian Church at Hanoverton, and became the pastor. In 1841 the frame church building was replaced by a brick structure. In 1846 the church developed factions on the question of slavery, a portion of the congregation going with Rev. Mr. Robertson to the Free Presbyterian Church.

Probably the first burying ground laid out in Hanover township was the one at the Friends Meeting House near Hanoverton. William Craig is supposed to have been the first person buried there. He died about 1808. Although the ground was laid out by the Friends, it was free for public use, and many persons from a distance conveyed their friends thither for burial. There is an old burying ground, also, near New Garden. That, too, was laid out by the Friends, near their meeting house; and, although the Friends have passed out of the township, and their meeting house, too, is gone, the graveyard still remains, being still free to all denominations and the public generally.

THE TOWNSHIP OF KNOX.

Knox township is the northwest corner township of Columbiana County. It is slightly rolling as to its topography, and is drained by the Mahoning River and its tributaries. At an early day the land was largely taken up by speculators, who, however, disposed of their holdings in many cases to actual settlers at reasonable figures. The first permanent settler of the township was John Thomas, who came from Pennsylvania. He entered sections 27, 28 and 29, in 1804. Jacob Shaffer also settled in Knox in 1804. During the Sunday morning services, June 2, 1822, on the banks of the Sandy, Mrs. Shaffer and her infant child were killed by a falling tree. Daniel Whiteleather, living at the close of the century at North Georgetown, is one of a family of eight children, sons and daughters of Andrew Whiteleather. This family, all grown, settled in the township in 1807. Parmenas Lamborn settled on section 13 in 1814. John Weaver, Jr., from Bedford County, Pennsylvania, settled on section 35 in 1819. John Weaver, the father of John Weaver, Jr., settled on section 36 in 1822. In 1821 Cornelius Sheehan of Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, settled on section 32. In his family were 10 children—five sons and five daughters. James Johnson entered a quarter of section 17 in 1823. James Beer, a pensioner of the War of 1812, settled in Wayne township in 1805, and in 1830 removed to Knox, bringing a wife and family. Rev. Joshua Beer, son of the pioneer James Beer, had settled in Knox in 1825, leaving, in Portage County, whence he came, a family of grown sons and daughters. Rev. Mr. Beer had preached in Knox as early as 1818. While preaching in the Middle Sandy Presbyterian Church, he was taken suddenly ill, and died a few days afterward. Christian Dellenbaugh settled in Knox township in 1824. Dr. Dellenbaugh, a son of Christian, began the practice of medicine at North Georgetown, continuing 28 years. Daniel Burton, a native of Burlington County, New Jersey, bought lands from the government, comprising a part of section 9, receiving a grant therefor, bearing the signature of President John Adams. He settled on the land in 1826. Samuel Hoffman, a pioneer of Salem township, settled on section 21 in 1829. John, the oldest son living of a family of eight children, still resided on the home farm in Knox township a few years before the close of the century. George M. Bowman settled on section 23 in 1832. John Kuntz, of Union County, Pennsylvania, with his wife and son Robert, settled in North Georgetown in 1836. Benjamin Anderson entered land in section 30. He died in 1875. Among the early settlers of the township also were Jacob Stoffer, Henry Keister, Daniel Shiveley, George and Adam Wolf, George and John Mountz, Stophel Miller, Obadiah Crew, Thomas Stanley, Pleasant Cobbs and Adam and Michael Falor. James McLaughlin, an old Revolutionary soldier, who had served under the immediate command of General Washington, came to Columbiana County from Northumberland County, Pennsylvania, and settled near the village of Calcutta, St. Clair township, in the year 1797. In 1830 he removed to Knox township and settled on section 18. There he resided a few years and then removed to Wayne township where he died about 1834, in his 91st year.

Knox township was organized June 14, 1808. Jacob Crumbacher and Benjamin Anderson were the first trustees.

North Georgetown occupies a pleasant, elevated site, and has a population of about 200. It is located on sections 24 and 25, and was laid out in 1830. The village was platted by John Whiteleather and George Stiger. The first building erected on the site was a log house, built by John Weaver in 1828. In 1833 a hotel was opened by Jacob Ritter, who kept it in operation several years. George Wolf, Alexander Crump, David Eckstine, David Summers, and Samuel Sturgeon, respectively, succeeded to the proprietorship of the house. At the death of Mr. Sturgeon, the house was abandoned as a hotel. Another hotel was started in 1874 by Jacob Kuntz.

Homeworth, a thriving little town on the line of the Cleveland & Pittsburg Railroad, was laid out August 28, 1851, under the proprietorship of Jonas Ruff, Samuel Fox and Jacob Williams. While there had been a cluster of buildings on the site of Homeworth as early as 1840, yet the town really owes its existence to the Cleveland & Pittsburg Railroad. The postoffice prior to 1869 was known as "Sandy Postoffice." The first hotel was built by Jonas Ruff in 1852. Over the door of the house for several years was displayed the words, "Call and see Jonas Ruff." Reuben Shidler succeeded Ruff in 1863. In 1871 P. W. Taylor bought the property and continued the hotel in connection with his duties as postmaster. The development of the Homeworth oil field, told of elsewhere in this work, in 1904-05, gave the town something of a boom. Prior to 1880 for about 25 years, the Homeworth Agricultural Works did a large business in the manufacture of grain drills, corn shellers and various other agricultural implements.

Reading, a small and practically extinct hamlet, situated midway between North Georgetown and Homeworth, was platted about the year 1840, when a little cluster of houses was built. It was expected by some that this would be the center of trade for the township. The hamlet never extended beyond the limits of its original 40 acres.

The first regular divine service held in Knox township was in the summer of 1816, Rev. Robert Semple, of the Hartford (Connecticut) Presbytery, officiating. The service was held in the woods near the site later occupied by the Middle Sandy Presbyterian Church. November 10, 1821, the church was organized by Rev. John Core, of the same presbytery. The first house of worship was built about 1825, and the structure still in use in 1905 was built in 1853.

The early meetings of the German Baptist Church society were held in log houses as early as 1810—but they were of an informal character. These house to house meetings were continued until 1860, when a house of worship was erected on section 27. In 1878 the church building was enlarged and remodeled. This is the largest church edifice in the township, and will seat 600 persons.

The Disciples or Christians of Knox township held informal services as early as 1830. In 1866 the society purchased the schoolhouse on section 10, and removed it to lands of Dan-

The Reading Church of the Brethren Cemetery is located in Section 27 of Knox Township, on the north side of Georgetown Road (Co.Rd.#400), about 1/2 mi. southwest of Bowman Road (Co.Rd.#804).

Mack's History of Columbiana Co., 1879 (p.171) tells of the German Baptist Church in Knox Township, with early meetings being held in homes as early as 1810. The meetings were held from place to place until 1860, when a house of worship was erected in Section 27, with Lewis Glass being the first preacher. In 1878, the building was remodeled, and would seat 600 persons. A very good source to consult is "A History of the Reading Church of the Brethren including the Sandy District of the German Baptist Brethren, in Observance of Reading's 150th Anniversary", edited by Elaine Hahn Bonar, 1975. Some of the church records are included in this 113 page book.

Information Sources:

1850 Census. History of the Church of the Brethren. Records of Merrell Weaver, Columbus, Ohio. Records of Terry Stoffer.

Other Information:

According to Merrell Weaver, John Weaver lived in Reading, Berks County, Pennsylvania, then moved to (Haysburg?) Maryland for a time before he came to Columbiana County in 1822 [possibly Haggerstown, Merrell's memory was vague]. Bretheren record indicates he came from Bedford County, Pa. [There is a town called Claysburg in Bedford County, Pa.] Records of Terry Stoffer indicate that he may have immigrated to America, hence born overseas.

Children William and Catherine are mentioned in the Will of a John Weaver found by Terry Stoffer, however, it has not been confirmed that this is our ancestor. John Jr. came to Columbiana County in 1819. [See Probate Record, page 9-10.]

Church affiliation: probably Tunker (Brethren).

CHAPTER III

THE EARLY PIONEERS AND THE GERMAN BAPTIST BRETHREN

Before the early settlers came into what is now Columbiana County, the Wyandotte, Delaware and Mingo Indian tribes lived and hunted in the thick forests which covered the area. As the white man settled, the Indians would come to view these strange new people. The white man showed the Indian friendliness and the Indian returned the same. There were a few instances of hostility; however, these were soon brought to justice by those involved. Ohio became a state in 1803, and that same year Columbiana County was organized. The county was much larger then but had only five townships. In 1803, the population totaled 543 settlers in the county.(8:31) During the next 43 years the county decreased in size with portions going to the formation of new counties, namely, Stark, Carroll, Mahoning and Jefferson. The first venture into this county was made by John Quinn who settled between 1792 and 1793. Then with statehood many more came to the wilderness to make their new homes.

Land here in Knox Township was first purchased by land speculators who in turn resold the land in smaller parcels at a higher price to the early settlers. Some of the early pioneers purchased the land directly from the government and held deeds signed by the president at that time. Adam Hahn came in 1803 to what would later become North Georgetown. William Hahn came from Maryland in 1804, having come to America from Germany. He held a deed bearing the signature of President Thomas Jefferson. John Thomas settled in 1804. He and five sons established themselves with St. Michaels Lutheran Church at North Georgetown; however, two sons, Henry and Samuel, married girls of the German Baptist faith. They in turn joined with their wives in the German Baptist Church at Reading. His only daughter married John Niswander and also stayed with the church at Reading. Also moving into the township in 1804 was Jacob Shaffer.

Other pioneers coming into Knox Township included Andrew Whiteleather in 1807 with his eight children. John Weaver arrived in 1819 from Pennsylvania. His father John Sr. came in 1822. Christian Dellenbaugh and his son, the doctor, arrived in 1824. John Burton came in 1826 from New Jersey. Moving from Salem Township to Knox in 1829 was Samuel Hoffman and his eight children. George Bowman settled in 1832. Many pioneer families came in those early years including Jacob Stoffer, Henry Keister, Daniel Shively in 1809, and George and John Mountz. These early settlers and/or their descendants became important in the life of the Sandy Church with a congregation centered around the small village of Reading.

In the spring of 1805, John Thomas began laying out the Thomas Road on which the Reading Church is located. Having been commissioned by the county officials, he set about chopping a road through the wilderness north of Lisbon and following the northern branch of the old Eastern and Western Indian trail. (13:24) The road followed the trail north of Winona through North Georgetown, Homeworth, Freeburg and Louisville. The left branch then went on to the Indian capital at Bolivar. The right branch led on west to Cuyahoga. John Thomas was responsible for brushing the trail from north of Lisbon to Louisville. This was the only road for the very early travelers. It was along this Thomas Road that the German Baptists built their Reading Meeting House. The Thomas Road has since been renamed the Georgetown Road.

Knox Township came into being March 7, 1808, with the election of the first trustees. That same year the first taxes were collected. Weekly mail came by horseback as early as 1811. The stagecoach brought mail and passengers in 1829. North Georgetown was laid out in 1830, platted by John Whiteleather and George Stiger. In 1828 John Weaver built the first log house in what was to become a village. Then in 1833, Jacob Ritter opened the hotel to accommodate the stagecoach passengers traveling through the new territory. To the west was a small hamlet called Reading. Platted in 1840 when a small number of houses were built there, it was thought that Reading would become the trade center of the township; however, Reading never grew beyond the original forty acres.(14:284)

Samuel Thomas opened the first school in the township in 1806 in a log cabin. By 1826 there were four school districts, and later this increased to twelve. Isaac Heestand deeded three-fourths of an acre to Samuel Huffman for school purposes. The land was to be used for a schoolhouse and burying grounds. The congregation could then have a place for the preacher to hold funerals. This transaction took place in 1837.(5:630-631)

Among the early settlers whose descendants belonged to the German Baptist congregation were a few settlers in West Township. Michael Sanor arrived in 1804 with eleven

County in 1837 and attended school at North Georgetown. He also attended Mount Union. He spoke French, German and English fluently. He was called to the ministry at Reading by the Sandy District in 1862. He served in the free ministry from 1862 to 1882 and earned a living teaching and farming. He married twice and was the father of eight children. He also served as moderator of district conference several times. He died in 1886 and was buried in the Reading Cemetery.

Eli Stroup was ordained November 17, 1894 by the Sandy.

David Byers was ordained by the Sandy, probably in the 1880's or 90's.

FIRST AND SECOND DEGREE MINISTERS

David Summer migrated to the Sandy from the Mill Creek where he had been called to the ministry. He was the son of John Summer. He was a second degree minister and became crippled in a fall. "He and his wife died suddenly with supposed cholera." (15:43)

Simon B. Stuckey, an able song leader, was advanced to the second degree in 1876. After the split of the Sandy, Freeburg ordained him an elder in 1901.

Aaron Shively was advanced to the second degree in the 1870's. He was an amateur astronomer and lectured on the subject. He served in the free ministry at the Reading and Freeburg Churches until his death in 1910. He and his wife worked with the Bayard Sunday School for many years. His wife also preached and carried on his work until she died in 1920. She was known for her devotion to the sick and also for her singing at funerals.

Cicero Hiner married Rachel Shively, daughter of Martin Shively. The Shively families were quite dedicated to the work of the churches in the Sandy District, and many were elected to worthy positions. Cicero and Rachel withdrew from the congregation in 1887; thus, we know little of them. He was a first degree minister.

B. F. Bouser was a first degree minister. He and his wife withdrew in 1884.

Joseph J. Hoover was advanced to the second degree in 1889. He left the church soon thereafter to preach at East Nimishillin, but returned in 1894 with his family. He served the church until 1901 when their letters were granted.

Mathias W. Hahn joined the church at the age of fourteen and was elected to the ministry November 18, 1893, when he was only twenty-five. He attended Mount Union College and served as principal of Damascus Academy in 1896 and 1897. He served the Sandy congregation and then the Reading and Freeburg churches until 1910 when he moved to Delaware. There he sold real estate, taught and preached.

William W. Stroup was elected to the ministry in 1893; however, he declined the position. He was an able worker in the schools here in Knox Township and was County Superintendent at one time. He served the church in various ways and is mentioned often in the council minutes. He served the church as treasurer for many years.

DEACONS AND DEACONESSES

The deacons were responsible for making a yearly visit to all the members residing in their district. The deacon's wife was usually elected to be a deaconess. The deaconess was responsible for the care of the sick and the elderly. Only a few dates of their election are available so they are listed alphabetically with the wife's name beside her husband's. They served in this position for the remainder of their lives.

Dear Florian,
I am very excited to hear about your Weaver. I have been having trouble with my Weaver line, but it looks like we may be related there too. I have a Joseph Weaver (1828 poss. Columbiana, OH -1912 Osborn Cem Rome, IN) married to Lucinda Bradford (1/29/1836 Wolflake, IN-1927 Rome, IN) on 4/26/1856 in Ligonier, IN. He is listed as a Church of the Brethren minister in the 1881 list of ministers, but not listed in the church before that (he may have converted from a different religion) He was listed as living with another COB minister Christian Weaver at Christian's death in 1907. In the obit Joseph was listed as an "aged parent" which indicates that they were probably brothers. Christian was born in columbiana Co. OH 1/1/`826 and died 3/15/1907. Christian married Susanna Towns, came to Brimfield, Indiana in 1849 and lived there til his death. His obituary was signed by Lucinda Weaver, and was listed in the Gospel Messenger (May 4, 907 p. 288). Christian's father is listed as Christian Weaver and his mother as Christina. I have no dates for Christian and Christina Weaver. However, it looks like they may be the same as your Christian and Christina Weaver, which means that Sarah Weaver maybe a sister to Joseph and Christian. As the time Christian (1826-1907) died, beside living with Joseph, there were several other Weavers nearby, but I do not know if or how they connect- Levi, Moses, Elmer and David, all of them ministers. I am very excited about this possibility!! Do you have anything else on these ancestors? Thanks ~ Diane

I think I have found the connection between my great- grandmother Sarah Weaver Cripe and Christian Weaver.

Christian Weaver had ~~three~~ TWO wives. ~~We don't know who the first one was.~~
He married Christina Hetrick, a widow, in 1823. His ~~third~~ 2ND wife was Sarah Hoffman on Oct. 16, 1842 (Marriage records of Columbiana County, Ohio, Book 3, page 312). (Some people have him marring Sarah Heestand and dying in 1859, but this goes against the records and the tombstone inscription.)

An Ancestry.com record lists Lucinda Weaver, born Mar 8, 1844 as a daughter of Christian Weaver. Because of the date of Christian's third marriage, this would make her a half sister to Sarah Weaver who was born in 1836. (I don't know when Christina died as there is no listing in the books of cemetery inscriptions for Columbiana County.)

. Lucinda married Eli Stroup on Oct. 13, 1861. Lucinda and Elder Eli Stroup are buried in the Reading Cemetery in Knox Township, Columbiana County Ohio. This is the same cemetery where Christian Weaver is buried. It is the cemetery of the Reading Church of the Brethren.

I went to Goshen and looked up the obituary for Sarah Cripe. It listed as survivors a brother Simon Weaver of Missouri and a half-sister Lucinda Straub of Ohio. (The spelling of the last name was probably a newspaper error, spelling it how it sounded to the reporter.) There were no Lucinda Staub's listed in the 1910 census for Ohio, but Eli and Lucinda Stroup were listed in Columbiana County.

Simon had also lived in Noble County, Indiana, where Christian Weaver, Jr. and Jacob Weaver, both sons of Christian and Christina, had migrated (Alvord's History of Noble County). I can find no trace of either Sarah or Simon Weaver in the 1850 and 1860 censuses, either in Ohio or Indiana.
I just had an idea. Perhaps they were raised by Christina's relatives after either her or Christian's death, so I will look among the Hetrick's in the 1850 census. Or she may have simply migrated to Indiana with one of her brothers. Sarah was married to Aaron by 1860 (m. 1858). Simon married Mary Wright in 1862 who soon died. Then he married Sarah Bollinger in 1868. Simon was 74 in 1910 so he would have been born around 1836, about two years older than your grandmother. Simon and his wife were listed in the 1910 census as having 4 daughters still living with them. One was 26 and was born in Indiana, another was 22 and born in Missouri., so we have the time span within which they moved to Missouri.

Jacob Weaver married Lydia Towns of Steuben County, Indiana, in 1852 and Christian Weaver, Jr. married her sister, Susannah, in 1851. Both Jacob and Christian were 25 years old when they married.

I think I have found the connection between my great- grandmother Sarah Weaver Cripe and Christian Weaver.

Christian Weaver had three wives. We don't know who the first one was.
He married Christina Herrick, a widow, in 1825. His third wife was Sarah Hoffman on Oct. 16, 1842 (Marriage records of Columbiana County, Ohio, Book 3, page 212). (Some people have him marrying Sarah Hoffman and dying in 1859, but this goes against the records and the tombstone inscription.)

An Ancestry.com record lists Lucinda Weaver, born May 8, 1844 as a daughter of Christian Weaver. Because of the date of Christian's third marriage, she would make her a half sister to Sarah Weaver who was born in 1838. (I don't know when Christina died as there is no listing in the books of cemetery inscriptions for Columbiana County.)

Lucinda married Eli Stroup on Oct. 13, 1861. Lucinda and Elder Eli Stroup are buried in the Reading Cemetery in Knox Township, Columbiana County Ohio. This is the same cemetery where Christian Weaver is buried. It is the cemetery of the Reading Church of the Brethren.

I went to Goshen and looked up the obituary for Sarah Cripe. It listed as survivors a brother Simon Weaver of Missouri and a half-sister Lucinda Stroup of Ohio. (The spelling of the last name was probably a newspaper error, spelling it how it sounded to the reporter.) These were no Lucinda Stroup's listed in the 1910 census for Ohio, but Eli and Lucinda Stroup were listed in Columbiana County.

Simon had also lived in Noble County, Indiana, where Christian Weaver, Jr. and Jacob Weaver, both sons of Christian and Christina, had migrated (Alfred's History of Noble County). I see find no trace of either Sarah or Simon Weaver in the 1850 and 1860 censuses, either in Ohio or Indiana.

I have had an idea. Perhaps they were raised by Christian's relatives after their mother Christian's death, so I will look among the Herrick's in the 1850 census. Or she may have simply migrated to Indiana with one of her brothers. Sarah was married in Huron by 1860 (in 1859?) Simon married Mary Wright in 1862 who soon died. They then married Susan Dollinger in 1868. Simon was 74 in 1910 so he would have been born around 1836, about two years older than your grandmother. Simon and his wife were listed in the 1910 census as having a daughter still living with them. She was 26 and was born in Indiana, another was 22 and born in Missouri, so we have the time span within which they moved to Missouri.

Jacob Weaver married Lydia Thorn of Steuben County, Indiana, in 1852.
and Christian Weaver, Jr. married her sister, Susannah, in 1851. Both Jacob and Christian were 25 years old when they married.

The State of Ohio Columbiana County S.S.

To the Honourable the Court of Common Pleas for Columbiana County Ohio

I have carefully examined the second partial settlement of Isaac Weaver & Isaac Hake Executors of Christian Weaver Deceased and do find and report as follows to wit

Said accountants properly charge themselves with the following assets belonging to said estate to wit

|---|---|---|
| Amount in their hands at last settlement | 1047 | 07 |
| cash from sale of land since last settlement | 1010 | 75 |
| Interest | 24 | 00 |
| Amount recivied on an account | 79 | 00 |
| Whole amount of assets with which they should be charged | $2160 | 82 |

I also find by the evidence of proper vouchers that said accountants have paid out on account of said estate and should be credited as follows to wit

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| costs of Administration | 15 | |
| Debts | 38 | 13 |
| Legates | 1600 | 00 |
| Amount loaned out for widow | 400 | 00 |
| I also find that they should have credit for one hundred dollars charged against them by mistake as stated in their account | 100 | 00 |
| Amounting in all to the sum of | $1853 | 13 |
| Which being deducted from the above assets leaves in accountants hands the sum of | $307 | 69 |

Out of which accountants commissions and Masters Clerks & Printers fees to be allowed by court to be deducted

I also find that by the terms of the will of Deceased said accountants are required to loan out $400 and pay ~~out the interest~~ to the widow during her widowhood and that it is reasonable that they be allowed to hold in their hands the balance now in their hands to pay the future expenses of Administration -

All of which is respectfully submitted

LOGANSPORT, IND.:
B. F. BOWEN, PUBLISHER.
1902.

Kendallville, Noble county, Ind., was born on his father's farm in section 22, Wayne township, April 1, 1846, and on this old homestead he passed fifty-three years of his useful life, his being one of the oldest families in the township, and there he attended the district schools.

Mr. Wright was married, in Kendallville, February 4, 1869, to Miss Mary A. Gallup, a native of Saratoga county, N. Y., born December 21, 1849, and a daughter of Rufus and Abigail (Reynolds) Gallup. This marriage has been blessed with two children—Martha E., wife of Charles Isbell, and residing in Kendallville; and Nellie G., wife of J. Claude Thomas, who is engaged as cableman for the Home Telephone Company.

Mr. Wright has always been identified since reaching his majority with the Republican party, and his first office was that of trustee of Wayne township, to which he was appointed to fill a vacancy caused by the death of Charles McMillen, and executed its duties so satisfactorily that at the termination of the term for which he was appointed he was elected to succeed himself and held the position about seven years.

Mr. Wright has followed agricultural pursuits since his youthful day and still owns two hundred and ninety acres of good land in Wayne township, of which he was one of the most respected and honorable residents until his removal to Kendallville in the spring of 1899, and here also he is equally respected as a useful citizen and sagacious party man.

In church work Mr. Wright has also taken an ardent and active interest, as he has been a consistent and faithful member of the Methodist Protestant church since his twenty-third year of age and has served in the office of trustee and superintendent. He has always been very liberal in contributing financially to the defrayment of the expenses of his congregation and in aiding the church morally, willingly devoting his time on all occasions in advancing its interests and by his example extending its influence. Mr. Wright is, indeed, public spirited in a marked degree, and does all in his power to advance the public good in every way possible.

James Wright, the deceased father of James W. Wright, was born at Berhill, Sussex, England, December 11, 1815, and came to America when eighteen years old. Some five years later, in Knox county, Ohio, which was then his home, he married Miss Amelia Finch, who was born in Knox county, Ohio, January 11, 1815. In the spring of 1843 James Wright, with his wife and four children, came to Noble county, Ind., and settled in section 22, Wayne township, where he lived until 1876, when he removed with his wife to Kendallville, where his death occurred July 22, 1881. His widow then returned to the old homestead in Wayne township and made her home with her son James W., with whom she passed the remainder of her days, dying July 8, 1890.

To Mr. and Mrs. James Wright were born seven children, to-wit: Sarah, who is the widow of Jacob Shaffer; Mary, the deceased wife of Simon Weaver, passed away near Brimfield, Ind.; Margaret is the widow of Noah Weaver; James W., the subject proper of this sketch; William C.; Frances, who is the wife of David Browand; Louisa, who is married to Alonzo D. Whitford;

he located on his present place, where he has ever since resided. Mr. Warner came in time to see much new country, and to clear his farm principally of all its timber. In 1847, he married Ursula J. Hitchcock, and they have had one child—Maggie W., the wife of G. T. Brothwell. Mr. Warner owns 500 acres of land, which he and Mr. Brothwell farm, and also carry on stock-raising. Mr. Warner is a Republican. His wife was born in Orleans County, N. Y., September 15, 1822, and is a member of the M. E. Church. G. T. Brothwell was born January 25, 1841, in Bridgeport, Conn. Emery Brothwell and Polina Treadwell, his parents, are both dead. G. T. Brothwell came to Noble County in May, 1858, and lived with his uncle, John F., until the breaking-out of the war. August 12, 1862, he enlisted in Company B, Twelfth Indiana Volunteer Infantry, Fifteenth Army Corps, and was discharged June 20, 1865. Richmond, Ky., was the first battle he engaged in, and was there taken prisoner. He was paroled, came home on a furlough, after which he was exchanged, and then rejoined his regiment. He was an active participant in the battles of Chattanooga, Mission Ridge, Kenesaw and Lookout Mountain, Vicksburg, all through the Atlanta Campaign, with Sherman on his memorable march to the sea, and with Sherman went to Washington. After the war, Mr. Brothwell returned to his native town, and took a thorough course in Bryant & Stratton's Business College. Afterward, he came to South Bend, Ind., where for two years he was engaged in the manufacture of woolen goods. January 21, 1849, he married, and since that event has been chiefly engaged in farming in Orange Township. He and wife are members of the M. E. Church, and Mr. Brothwell is a Republican in politics.

C. C. WATKINS. The father of the subject, Orlin Watkins, was born in Ontario County, N. Y., December 24, 1798. He was a son of Nathan and Sarah (Clark) Watkins, and grandson of Capt. William Watkins (Captain in the Revolution). His great-grandfather Watkins was a native of Wales, and during the religious disturbances there, in 1688, he and a brother fled to America. Orlin Watkins was raised a farmer. He was married March 13, 1822, to Electa S. Ketchum. After his marriage, he engaged in the manufacture of woolen goods in Naples, N. Y. The spring of 1836 he sold out, came to Noble County, and entered 400 acres on Sections 21 and 27 in Orange Township; returned to New York. The fall of 1836, he brought his family, but did not locate until the next year. The winter of 1836–37, he was in Michigan, and the fall of 1837 came to Noble County, leaving his family in Wayne Township, until he could erect a cabin. He resided in Orange Township until his death, June 13, 1860. His wife died on the 17th of August, 1854. They were the parents of five children, four living. Mr. Watkins was a Whig, but, beginning with John C. Fremont's candidacy, became a permanent Republican. He was a worker in the Congregational faith. Calvin C. Watkins was born October 26, 1826. He came with his parents to Indiana. He was married September 24, 1858, to Nancy J. Piatt, a native of Knox County, Ohio. Their union has been blessed with six children—Warren C., Fanny F., Timothy C., Lizzie A., Nathan A. and Willie H. Lizzie is dead. Mr. Watkins has made Orange Township his home since coming to Noble County. He owns 200 acres of good land, is a Republican, and he and wife are members of the Protestant Methodist Church. Mr. Watkins is a member of the Masons, the Knights of Honor and the Odd Fellows.

of age. He spent some time at clearing land, and bought 108 acres of wooded land in Orange Township, then went back to Ohio. He made the journey on foot, a distance of 300 miles, with the exception of sixteen miles that he traveled by rail, from Fort Finley to Cary, on the first cars he had ever seen. He returned in 1850, and September 20, 1851, was married to Susanna Towns, native of Ohio, and daughter of John and Mary Towns, who located on a farm, in 1850, in Steuben County, Ind., where they died. Mr. Weaver's farm now numbers 267 acres of land of the best soil to be found in the county, and in place of the old log cabin stands a commodious frame residence, and the farm is well superintended by the owner, who is a thorough farmer. Mr. and Mrs. Weaver are members of the German Baptist Church, and have had five children —John (deceased), William, who is one of the most active and prosperous farmers of Elkhart Township; Sylvanus and Wesley, living at home, and Cornelius (deceased.)

JACOB WEAVER. January 30, 1827, there was born to Christian and Christina (Hetrick) Weaver, the subject of this sketch, in Columbiana County, Ohio. The mother died after bearing Mr. Weaver a family of twelve children, and this gentlemen married Mrs. Sally Hoffman for his second wife, who bore him two children. Mr. Weaver is now dead, but his last wife is yet living. Father of subject was a farmer. He was an honest, straightforward man, a Deacon in the German Baptist Church, and a well-respected citizen. Jacob Weaver was reared on his father's farm, assisting his parents in the duties of farm life that devolved on them. His educational advantages were very limited, and he received but a meager schooling. He emigrated to Indiana the fall of 1849, and for a few months resided in Jefferson Township. Early the next year, he removed to Orange Township, which he has since made his home. The country at that time was quite wild, and small clearings were all that attested that people had been there. Mr. Weaver worked around at different jobs until his marriage to Lydia Towns the fall of 1852, since when he has been living on his present place. He commenced with small means at his command, but by hard labor and economy has made a competence. He owns 102 acres of well-improved land, and is in good financial circumstances. He is a Democrat, and he and wife are members of the German Baptist Church. The children born to them are as follows: Rachel, David, Lee, Lou, Jacob and Lona, living, and Ellen, Eli, John and Rosetta, dead.

CHARLES A. WILSON, M. D., proprietor of the Mineral Springs Therapy, Rome City, was born April 20, 1842, in Worcester County, Mass. He is one of five children, of whom Wheaton and Jerusha (Chase) Wilson were the parents. Up to the age of nineteen, he lived at home, and received a good practical education. At the age of twelve, he began working at ornamental painting, but discontinued it for the study of medicine when sixteen. He left his studies and enlisted, September, 1861, in Company I, Twenty-fifth Massachusetts Volunteer Infantry. He served in the infantry until after the capture of Newbern as Assistant Hospital Steward, and was then transferred on the United States steamer Delaware, and, after six months, to the ship Onward. This vessel left port with sealed instructions, not to be opened until they had sailed easterly 100 miles. On opening these instructions, it was found that they were out for a two years' cruise in search of the Alabama and Florida, and to protect the rights of American citizens in foreign ports. For a year and nine months they cruised around with ordinary success. Dr. Wilson, on this trip, obtained a good knowledge of surgery, besides a memorable experience in for-Christian Weaver, father of William Weaver, was born in Columbiana county, Ohio, January 1, 1826; Christian's wife was Susanna Towns, a native of Stark county, Ohio, born February 11, 1828. They were married in Steuben county, Ind., and settled in Orange township, Noble county, Ind., where she passed away January 10, 1900—the father still living. They were the parents of five children, namely: John, who died in childhood; William, the subject; Sylvanus is a farmer residing in Orange township; Wesley is also a farmer of Orange township; and Cornelius, who died in childhood.

The life work of this worthy couple is well worthy the emulation of those who seek to so live that their future years may be rewarded by a competence when the weight of years shall come, and their memory will long remain among those with whom their lot was fortunately cast.

NOAH WINSTEAD.

The subject of this sketch has richly earned and commanded the respect and confidence of those with whom he has been brought in contact. He has been for years more or less prominently identified with the varied interests of his community and has contributed largely to its advancement, morally, educationally and materially.

Noah Winstead is a native son of the Buckeye state, his birth having taken place in Fairfield county, May 8, 1859. He is a son of Fayette and Ellen (Greeno) Winstead. The father was a native of Pickaway county, Ohio, but came to Indiana in 1859 and settled on the old Hittler farm, near Cromwell, Sparta township. About 1870 he bought the farm whereon his son Noah now resides and lived there until his death, February 25, 1900. Ellen (Greeno) Winstead was a daughter of Jacob Greeno, an old and honored resident of Fairfield, Ohio.

Noah Winstead until he attained the age of eighteen years attended the public schools of Fairfield, and was a faithful, persevering student. Upon leaving school he began working by the month, continuing at that employment for six years. Then for several years he worked by the day at farm work. Finding employment in a tile yard, he remained there until 1897, when he moved with his father and cared for him until the latter's death. He is now the owner of one hundred and sixty acres of fertile and productive farm land, and its well-kept appearance abundantly testifies to the care which its owner bestows upon it.

The marriage of Noah Winstead was solemnized on the 2d of April, 1887, when he took for a helpmeet Miss Alice Donelson, daughter of William Donelson, a native of Ohio. This union has been blessed with the birth of four children, viz.: Grover, born December 14, 1887; Cletis, born April 7, 1891; Nellie, born August 30, 1893; Artimesia, born June 21, 1896. These children compose a bright and interesting group, in which their parents take a just pride.

Politically Mr. Winstead is a Democrat, firmly believing that the principles enunciated in the platform of that party are those most in harmony with the spirit of our political institutions and most calculated to enhance the welfare of the people.

Religiously Mr. Winstead and his family are members of the Christian church at

Information Sources:

1850 Census. History of the Church of the Brethren. Records of Merrell Weaver, Columbus, Ohio. Records of Terry Stoffer.

Other Information:

According to Merrell Weaver, John Weaver lived in Reading, Berks County, Pennsylvania, then moved to (Haysburg?) Maryland for a time before he came to Columbiana County in 1822 [possibly Haggerstown, Merrell's memory was vague]. Bretheren record indicates he came from Bedford County, Pa. [There is a town called Claysburg in Bedford County, Pa.] Records of Terry Stoffer indicate that he may have immigrated to America, hence born overseas.

Children William and Catherine are mentioned in the Will of a John Weaver found by Terry Stoffer, however, it has not been confirmed that this is our ancestor. John Jr. came to Columbiana County in 1819. [See Probate Record, page 9-10.]

Church affiliation: probably Tunker (Brethren).

IX. WASHINGTON COUNTY

There are many records of Washington County available. A few are listed below. Data given generally refer to the county as it was in that year. From the original county came Greene and parts of Allegheny and Beaver. The vast resources of the Washington County courthouse and the Citizens Library (Washington) are outlined in X.

1. Estate Records 1781-1799

Before the formation of Washington County in 1781 the main sources for estates for the region are in Westmoreland County, Pa. (abstracts of wills in Vol. 6 Genealogical Society of Pa., 1915-17) and Yohogania County, Va. (summarized in Vol. 9, No. 3 The Virginia Genealogist, 1965). A few earlier records may be found at Wheeling, W. Va.; Morgantown, W. Va.; Bedford, Pa.; and Carlisle, Pa. Both Virginia and Pennsylvania claimed the region and established courts. Permanent settlements began about the year 1770.

Washington County in 1781 included all of Pennsylvania south of the Ohio and west of the Monongahela River - present Washington and Greene Counties with parts of Allegheny and Beaver. The wills of Washington County 1781-1805 have been abstracted by Mary Ellison Wood (Vol. 6 Genealogical Society of Pa. - No. 2, Mar. 1916, pgs. 135-180). This reference should be consulted.

The present publication lists the wills, administration bonds, accounts and Orphans Court records for 1781-99. The wills contain much information not given here. The bonds were not available when the 1967 edition of this book was issued.

The data are presented in condensed form. A search of the original records will be helpful. Where minor children are named, there were likely older children, whose names were not given. If the person filing the accounts had the same surname, the given name is listed in parenthesis. Where given, the township of residence is listed after the name.

Y = mentioned in earlier Yohogania records
w = will on file, year of probate listed a = accounts filed, both wills and letters of administration OC = estate mentioned only in Orphans Court records minor ch = guardian listed for these children ch = children named in estate distribution or partition bound ch = child bound out, father dead bd = administration bond and letters granted
85 = 1785 (e.g.)

YOUR FAMILY TREE

WHERE DO YOU BEGIN? Begin with yourself. Always proceed from the present to the past. Record your name, place and date of birth, marriage and residence. Now search out and record the same type of vital record information about your parents, then your grandparents, and so on through as many generations as possible.

Start gathering your information by interviewing older living members of your family. Family documents, certificates, licenses, Bible records, scrapbooks, and photo albums can be very helpful. The library will have many sources of data including genealogies, census records, directories, and military records.

LOCATING BOOKS. Most of the books in the collection are located in closed stacks, though some statewide finding aids, vital records, and other references are available for browsing on the open shelves in the reading room. You can identify the books you would like to use by checking the card catalog under the author, subject, or title of the book. Subjects would include the name of the family (e.g. MARTIN FAMILY), or the name of a geographic area, followed by a subject heading (e.g. AUGUSTA CO., VIRGINIA. BIOGRAPHY.) Please fill out a request slip for each book you would like to use and the books will be brought to your seat in a few minutes by the paging staff.

GENEALOGY SUBJECT HEADINGS--SOME PLACES TO LOOK IN THE CATALOG:

| Atlases | Genealogy | Obituaries |
| Bible Records | History | Passenger Lists |
| Biography | Land Records | Pensions |
| Cemeteries | Maps | Probate Records |
| Census | Marriage Licenses | Registers of Births, etc. |
| Church History | Military Records | |
| Colleges | Names, Geographical | Schools |
| Court Records | Names, Personal | Tax Records |
| Deeds | Naturalization Records | Voting Registers |
| Gazetteers | Newspapers | Wills |

LOCATING MICROTEXT. Microtext records are cataloged separately in the microtext reading room. Check the microtext catalog under the appropriate subject to get the roll number of the film you would like to use. You may get the microtext yourself, one item at a time. Please place all used microtext on the return cart for refiling by the staff. Aside from drawers marked census, city directories, military records, and passenger lists, be sure to check the lower half of the microtext catalog under the name of the state for county histories, vital records, or other courthouse records available only on microtext.

LOCATING PERIODICALS. Most genealogy periodicals are filed alphabetically by title in the open stacks of the department. Check the PERiodical Source Index (PERSI) on the reference shelves under the name of the family or the name of the state and county for a list of relevant articles.
